Re: Cease & Desist, Notice of Temporary Restraining Order, and Demand to Preserve All Relevant Documents

Mr. Knight:

I write on behalf of Legacy Restoration, LLC (“Legacy”) and SNR Global, LLC d/b/a Southern Roofing and Renovation (“Southern,” and together with Legacy, the “Company”) concerning evidence of your ongoing conspiracy with Oswaldo “Junior” Barajas, Alex Skelton, and Leah Raffles (collectively, the “Co-Conspirators”) to steal the Company’s confidential information and unlawfully solicit the Company’s employees for the benefit of a competing roofing company (the “Competing Company”) established by Mr. Barajas. This letter serves as a follow-up to the April 25, 2025, letter sent to you by Southern concerning your participation in the conspiracy to support the Competing Company by stealing from the Company.

Legacy has filed a lawsuit captioned Legacy Restoration, LLC v. Oswaldo “Junior” Barajas et al., Case No. 1:25-cv-05219, currently pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. You are hereby notified that, on June 26, 2025, the Honorable Lewis Liman, United States District Judge, entered a temporary restraining order (the “TRO”), attached at Exhibit 1, against Oswaldo Barajas and all persons acting in active concert or participation with him receiving this order. The TRO specifically enjoins such persons from actions including, but not limited to, soliciting the Company’s employees or customers, interfering with the Company’s business relationships, and using or disclosing the Company’s Confidential Information. As someone who has received actual notice of this TRO, you are required by law to fully comply with its terms and prohibitions.

In addition, a former employee of the Company, you are bound by confidentiality obligations detailed in the Southern Employee Handbook (the “Handbook”), which you agreed to abide by in exchange for your employment with the Company. These obligations strictly prohibit you from disclosing, misusing, or otherwise improperly handling the Company’s Confidential Information during the term of your employment and subsequent thereto. During the term of your employment with the Company, you were also bound by non-solicitation, no-conflict-of-interest, no-theft, and no-misuse-of-Company-IT obligations detailed in the Handbook, which you agreed to abide by in exchange for your employment with the Company. The Company has evidence that, during the term of your employment, you collected cash payments from Company customers and failed to remit those payments to the Company. The Company understands that you remain in possession of multiple company-issued computers and are refusing to return them.

The Company has evidence that, during the term of your employment, you engaged in downloads of the Company's data and documents, including, but not limited to, the documents listed in Exhibit 2. Upon information and belief, the Company understands that you have engaged in the disclosure and misuse of the Company's Confidential Information with the intent to support the Competing Company or another competing enterprise. Upon information and belief, the Company has evidence that you have further participated in efforts to solicit or facilitate the solicitation of current Company employees to leave the Company and join the Competing Company. Soliciting and/or conspiring with others to solicit employees of the Company to join the Competing Company, to steal the Company's customer relations, or to steal the Company's property or confidential information is strictly prohibited and constitutes multiple serious breaches of your obligations to the Company.

Pursuant to the Employee Handbook, you agreed to reasonable and enforceable non-disclosure, non-solicitation, no-conflict-of-interest, and protection of trade secrets/confidential information policies, including, but not limited to, the following:

- you agreed not to disclose or use the Company's Confidential Information (as defined in the Handbook);
- you agreed to return all records, files, plans, documents, and other property of the Company, including, but not limited to, company-issued computers, on termination of your employment or at the Company's request at any time.
- you agreed not to solicit another employee for the support of any organization, including an enterprise competing with the Company, during the term of your employment;
- you agreed not to engage in theft of money or property from the Company, during the term of your employment;
- you agreed not to forward, copy, transfer, or upload emails or documents containing trade secrets or Confidential Information of the Company to any personal email, cloud-based storage or online storage accounts, during the term of your employment;

- you agreed not to use or allow another individual to use Company IT (as defined in the Handbook) for any purpose that is competitive with the Company, during the term of your employment;
- you agreed not to engage in any business or activities in competition with the Company (including the business of exterior restoration (including, but not limited to, the repair or replacement of roofing, siding, gutters, and windows) and related service, sales, and lead generation activities), during the term of your employment; and
- you agreed not to hold a financial or ownership interest in an entity that competes with the Company, during the term of your employment.

See Handbook pp. 29, 34, 37–38, 40–42.

Accordingly, the Company demands that you make the following representations by 5:00 pm Central Time on Thursday, July 3, 2025:

3. You did not solicit, or attempt to solicit, any current or former Company employees to take, disclose, or misuse any property or Confidential Information of the Company, including, but not limited to, the Company's standard operating procedures, training materials, customer lists, pricing information, information technology, or other proprietary data.
4. You did not solicit, or attempt to solicit, any Company customers or encourage Company customers to do business with the Competing Company or any other enterprise that competes with the Company, and did not encourage or help others to do so.

5. You will promptly return to the Company the $9,692.00 in cash you stole from a customer for roofing services provided by the Company. See Exhibit 3.
6. You will promptly return to the Company the two company-issued computers currently in your possession, in good and working condition, ensuring that no data or documents stored therein are deleted, altered, or removed.
7. You did not misuse any Company resources, including, but not limited to, funds or travel expenses, nor did you improperly divert company funds for personal benefit or any non-company-related activities during the term of your employment with the Company.
8. You did not solicit, or attempt to solicit, any Company employees, or encourage Company employees to seek employment at the Competing Company or any other enterprise that competes with the Company during the term of your employment with the Company.
9. You did not have any involvement, direct or indirect, with the Competing Company or any other enterprise that competes with the Company during the term of your employment with the Company.
10. You did not hold a financial or ownership interest in the Competing Company or any other enterprise that competes with the Company during the term of your employment with the Company.

In addition to the above, by the deadline, please (1) provide copies of any agreements or offer letters with the Competing Company, any other enterprise you are involved with that competes with the Company, Brian Wolff, or Oswaldo “Junior” Barajas, including but not limited to any agreements to indemnify you for legal fees or liability related to your departure from the Company or continued obligations to the Company; and (2) confirm whether the Competing Company or any other enterprise that competes with the Company represents you individually, or, if you have separate legal representation, provide their name and contact information.

You also have the legal obligation to preserve, and not to destroy, any and all documents relevant to this dispute, including but not limited to text messages, call logs, and emails. You are specifically obligated to preserve – and not to delete or destroy – any and all communications (including texts) with Oswaldo “Junior” Barajas, Brian Wolff, Alex Skelton, and Leah Raffles. You are also specifically obligated to preserve the documents listed in Exhibit 2 on any computers, email accounts, cloud-based storage accounts or online storage accounts in which the documents are currently stored.

We remind you that it is against the law to misappropriate trade secrets or to intentionally interfere with the Company's business relations. In addition, any unauthorized possession, use, or disclosure of the Company's Confidential Information may constitute violations of state and federal law and may entitle the Company to an award of equitable and substantial monetary relief. Please be advised that this letter is not intended to be a complete statement of the facts, and the Company's investigation of this situation remains ongoing.
